Dear Sir,

The collection we offered you, in the early part of the year, that of Sir Arthur Evans, has now been purchased by a private English collector Mr A. H. Lloyd, of Cambridge, who has entrusted us with the sale of his duplicates from the Evans cabinet.

Among these are the four coins we beg to send you on approval, and we should be pleased to hear you have a list of the principal pieces left, if you so desire. Most of the remaining coins are not very fine and hardly your quality.

By the same opportunity we beg to offer you five merovingian gold tremisses, which we have purchased recently.

We took the liberty of sending you Catalogues of the Rome and Lugano auction sales of Roman coins which our Mr. Forrer will be attending.

With best thanks for all your orders
We beg to remain Dear Sir

Dear Sir,

We have taken the liberty of despatching by separate post, for your kind approval, a copy of our new book on the Aes Grave by the Rev. E.A.Sydenham, which has been called for for some time, and should do much to popularise this fascinating series. If you should decide to keep the book the price is one guinea.

We have also posted to you separately plaster casts of a number of exceedingly rare or very fine pieces of Aes Grave, which we think may interest you. We have enclosed herewith a list of same, numbered, and with our lowest cash prices.

We are at present listing Aes Grave in the Circular, and in due course most if not all of these pieces should appear; but we thought you would be glad of an opportunity of making a selection beforehand.

We might call special attention to the DUPONDIUS of VOLTERRAE with Dolphin, and the AS of Venusia.

We are, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

London, England.

Dear Sirs:-

The casts of the Aes Grave have arrived and I am quite interested in them. The types of two of them (No.I As Latium, Sydenham 95; No. V Semis Iguvium, Sydenham 228) are already in my collection. I should be glad to see all the others if you could send them to me on approval. The difficulty of ordering them from casts is you say nothing about their condition, patina, and so forth. If they are up to the mark of the other pieces of my collection I shall probably take them. I wonder if you could make a somewhat better price if I took five pieces.

I am glad to keep Sydenham's book for which I enclose a draft for one guinea.

I do not care to attempt to collect all the Aes Grave but should like one, preferably the As, of each important type or group, but of Series I, Sydenham page 91 I should like a complete set. I now have the As Triens and Quadrans of this series. If you have the other three pieces, namely Semis, Sextans and Uncia in fine condition, I should be glad to have you send them to me.

I am going abroad on the 24th of July and hope to be in London in October when I shall come in to see you.

Very truly yours,

JWG/S

Dear Sirs:-

I am returning you under separate registered mail some of the coins sent in your last invoice, and enclose my check for those that I have kept. I have also received Sydenham's Rea Grave which I am very glad to have. The plaster casts mentioned in your letter of May 22nd have not yet been received.

Very truly yours,

John W. Garrett Esq.,

Dear Sir,

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of your favour of the 9th inst. with Draft for £1.1.0. We enclose receipted invoice for the book herewith, with many thanks.

We have despatched to you today in four separate registered letters the five pieces of Aes Grave in which you are interested. If they are in sufficiently good condition for you to keep all five we will quote you the special price of £400 for them.

We have at the moment a Semis and a Sextans of Sydenham series I, but they are hardly in a condition that you yourself would consider fine enough for your collection, and we therefore have not sent them. If, however, you would care to see them the prices for them are £4 and £2 respectively.

We enclose our approval note for the five pieces. We should have mentioned that the Dupondius of Volaterræ is practically a historic coin, having been illustrated with a colour plate in "Monumenta Etruriæ" (series III, plate I) in the early part of the nineteenth century.

There are at present appearing in our "Numismatic Circular" a number of other very rare pieces of Aes Grave. We would gladly endeavour to meet you if you care to take a quantity of these.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Please accept our best thanks for your esteemed Remittance of £597. 6. 0 in settlement of our account.

On comparing the photograph of the Dekadr. which you purchased with that reproduced in Evans Syracusan Medallions Pl. II, 8 we also come to the conclusion that they are not the same coin, although Sir Arthur Evans stated it to be so. The piece you have came from his father, Sir John Evans' collection, and came into Sir Arthur's possession on the former's death.

We have made a note of your observations shall refer to them on any occasion they may come [illegible].

With renewed thanks for all favours

We beg to remain

Dear Sir,

We are obliged by your favour to hand but cannot understand the catalogue not reaching you sooner as we sent all of them off by the same mail. You did not however lose anything, as none of the Massachusetts pieces went for less than £50, and lot 178 (a poor and very battered coin) realized £305. All the prices were preposterous owing to several American buyers sending open commissions to "buy" and opposing each other through their representatives to a really absurd length. What the purchasers will say when they receive their lots is difficult to imagine. If we may say so you were well out of the running, as we should not have had the conscience to put you to such expense when in our judgment they were not worth a tenth of what they realized.

Dear Sir,

We beg to hand you a report of the Peltzer Sale, and regret that we have been able to buy but very few lots for you on account of the very keen competition, both by mail and by the presence of Messrs. Chapman and Guttag at the Sale.

We are sending you Lot 1182 on approval, as the coin is in really brilliant state and is a first class rarity, and we should like you to have an opportunity of acquiring it before anyone else.

The coins themselves are being shipped by separate registered post, and we shall be glad to receive your acknowledgment.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Having just purchased a little lot of Byzantine gold coins, we venture to submit a few of them for your kind approval, where they present some interest either through the condition or through their rarity.

We would like to call your special attention to the two coins of Michael III, both of which are extremely rare, No. 5 in particular, which was given as worth 800 francs in Sabatier many years ago: The specimen is not perfect, but the legends are quite clear, and we do not know when we may come across a better piece.

We trust that you may be interested in some of these, and we shall always be happy to let you know of any further coins in this series we may come across.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

We have for disposal an example of the exceedingly rare "struck" Dupondius of the Uncial Series, B.C. 217 - 197.

This piece is illustrated on page 47 of the British Museum Catalogue, Vol. I, as not being in the National Collection at the time. A specimen, however, has since been acquired. It is also illustrated in "Babelon", Vol. I, page 62.

Our example weighs 590 grains, and is in very fine condition with a green patina. We are asking £23 for it.

Would you care to see this piece on approval?

Yours faithfully,
for SPINK & SON, LTD.

We take the liberty of enclosing a plaster cast of a magnificent Tetradrachm of Amphipolis, which we have just acquired from a French Collection.

This coin is a variety of B.M.C.1, and of pleasing style. As far as condition goes, we consider it as fine, if not finer, than the two Bement specimens.

The price is £750 less 10%, i.e., £675 net, and we should be very pleased to send you the coin on approval.

Dear Sirs:-

I enclose a commission from and shall be much obliged if you will bid for me on the lots mentioned within the limits stated at the Geneva sale No. XIII on the 27th to 29th of June.

I have had several disappointments in regard to the condition of lots bought at these sales. The catalogues seemed to me to exaggerate the condition of many of the lots. Please do not buy anything for me that is not in excellent condition and please use the utmost care in this regard particularly in connection with the Roman First Bronzes. On any lot, if the condition of the bidding seems to warrant it, you may go a little bit above my limits in order to secure a fine piece.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir,

Per separate post we beg to send you plaster casts of two remarkable coins:—

1. Mausolus. Tetradrachm. Facing head. By ΝΕ
Rar. £40

2. Catana. Tetradrachm. By ΧΟΙΡΙΣΕΝ.
Facing head of Apollo, with lyre behind and rev. ΑΡΟΛΛΩΝ. Ext fine. £1100

This coin is exceedingly rare, much more so than the facing Catana by Herakleidas. The owner in Sicily asks for £1000, and considering that this figure has lately been paid for a Herakleidas coin, we do not think the price out of the way. We would have to add 10% commission for ourselves.

Trusting you may wish to read these coins

Dear Sirs:-

I should be much obliged if you would send me on approval the Wansolus Tetradrachm about which you wrote me under date of September 11th. The Catana Tetradrachm is priced far beyond anything I care to give for it. I am keeping the two Roman coins sent with your letter of September 19th and I enclose a draft herewith to your order in payment of them and of my subscription to the Numismatic Circular.

Dear Sir,

We thank you for your esteemed letter of 15th inst., enclosing £45. 5. 0 in payment for the two bronzes of Martinianus and Alexander respectively to our Num. Circ.

Per separate Registered Post we beg to send you on approval the mausolus Gladiators we quoted to you.

We quite realize that the Catana facing Gladr. by Xoipion is expensive, but it is an exceptionally fine coin & the owner does not want to reduce the price very much. However we should be pleased to submit an offer, and also for another facing Catana by Herakleidas, equally beautiful - priced at £1000. The Bement piece of the Commodus Reverse realized £20500 + 15% = £950.

The Xoipion is rather a not represented in the Bement coll.

Yours obediently

Dear Sir,

We have pleasure in sending you the cast an extremely fine and rare gold coin of Diadumenianus. As you know, it is a piece of the highest rarity, and we thought it possible you might be glad to add this piece to your series of portraits in gold in the Roman Imperial coinage. It passed through our hands some years ago, but a well-known English collector has now decided to part with it. We send you herewith the plaster cast so that you can judge for yourself of its wonderful condition. The price is £140. net.

Dear Sir,

"Apollo" of this month contains a rather interesting and well illustrated article on the signatures of the great artists who engraved the Coins of Ancient Greece.

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of this, and we believe that you may find it worth while to peruse.

We have also enclosed in it a photograph of a rather fine case of Greek Coins of the best style, which we have just recently made up to illustrate the style of Greek Medallic Art at its zenith.
